CATENIANS

Circle Website: www.salisburycatenians.org

A quiet start to January with just 15 dining and no visitors, but it was enjoyable to see several brothers who've been unable to attend of late. A bonus was your editor winning the Salisbury Swindle for the first time in ages.

The January Pub Lunch held at the Greyhound was well attended by 13 Brothers, wives & friends; it would have 15 but our globe trotting Brother and his wife had to isolate after their latest jaunt, having tested positive for COVID on their return Both are fully recovered now I'm glad to hear. This months Pub Lunch will be at the Cosy Club in Salisbury on Tuesday 8th, so if anyone wants to join in then make sure you notify David Gillen by close of play this Friday 4th.

Don't forget our friend and frequent visitor to Salisbury Circle, Brother Roger Lillie from Southampton Circle, will be installed as GB National Vice President at this years National Conference at Eastbourne, it would be good to support him.

And finally we have our 50th Anniversary Celebration coming up soon on Saturday 19th March, I understand from our dining secretary there a few places still available.

Last but by no means least — Volunteers for a position on Council ????
