SALISBURY NEWSLETTER—July 2021

SALISBURY CIRCLE 266

Founded 14th March 1971

Current membership 39

The big day is drawing near; it's looking hopeful that the lifting of many of the current national COVID restrictions will take place on 19th July and that we will all be able to get together again, notably at our next Circle meeting on 22nd July. Whilst Video conferencing has enabled us continue our meetings during the restrictions, and will likely continue for our Council meetings; video will never replace the pleasure of conversing face to face and sharing a meal together.

This months Circle meeting will be our first meeting and dinner since February 2020. A staggering 17 months since we last broke bread together. This will be a Ladies night, the first since November 2019 — it seems an incredible long time ago. There will be a Catenian Thanksgiving Mass at St Osmund's at 6:15, then we all start gathering at the Wite Hart from about 7.00 onwards for a meeting start of 7:30.

With the lifting of COVID restrictions our social programme of events is slowly being reinstated. A number of suggestions have been raised at Council and if any Brothers have any ideas or suggestions then please do come forward.
