Circle Roundup

A brief “catch-up” first.

In July Past President Steve Carrivick & his wife Maureen, undertook the McMillan Cancer Support Jurassic Coast Mighty Hike, covering 13.5 miles.

In September, Current President Gary Porter joined the Salisbury Hospice 6 mile “Midnight Walk”.

Congratulations to them all, and many thanks to those Brothers who sponsored them.

September was a busy month for visits to other Circles, namely Weymouth, Blandford, Isle of White and Wetherby. The visit to Weymouth, ended up as a bit of a “boys day out at the seaside”. A visit to Nothe Fort, Ice Creams whilst overlooking the bay, views of the Paddle Steamer Waverley, and a Fish & Chips lunch, all before the meeting.

SALISBURY CATENIANS NEWSLETTER

October 2026

Our Council meetings are switching from Zoom to MS Teams, and will now start at the earlier time of 6:00pm. Brothers are welcome to attend our Council meetings, but don't have voting rights. If you wish to attend contact our Secretary Albert Rhodes who will send joining instructions.

Looking Ahead

There is no Circle Meeting this Month, instead we're holding a Clergy Night. Clergy from across our Pastoral Area (St Edith of Wilton), along with Military Chaplains have been invited plus representatives from our Catholic Schools. This takes place on Thursday 29th October and is a Ladies Night.

Wednesday 21st October Bro. Graham Brown will be leading a walking tour of "Catholic Salisbury". The last stop will be a Pub. Contact Bro. Garaham if you wish to attend or have any queries.

Monday 26th October is a Presidents visit to New Forest Circle (Ladies invited). This a Lunchtime meeting. Notify Bro. David Moreherad if interested.

Friday 30th October, wine tasting evening at Andover, a great social event with good wines and good company. Tickets £10 each with 6 different wines to taste and bread and cheese to clean the palate! Contact Andover Circle Vice-President Nigel Bradley

Friday 11th December Celebrate Voice at Christmas at the medieval Hall, tickets from £35. A number of Salisbury Catenians have already booked. For more information contact Bro. David Morehead or click here Celebrate Voice at Christmas - Celebrate Voice 2026.

Not until next year, but Poole Circle will be celebrating their 700th meeting on 4th March 2027. In order that they can plan the event they wish to know prospective numbers, if interested please advise both John McCallion and Kevin Wormley.

Your Catenian Websites

<https://thecatenians.com/> Website specific for existing members. This is where you'll find the home of the Catenian Digital Services (CDS), designed as your prime resource for Catenian information. A copy of the Association Flyer regarding the CDS has been sent to you in the same email as this latest Circle Newsletter. It provides details of how to login to the two separate areas and what you can find there.
