It's been a busy July

It's been a long time coming, but we are increasingly getting closer to how things were Pre-COVID. Plus the weather has been hot and dry; sometimes too hot and now things are looking somewhat parched. Still we can't have everything.

On Tuesday 5th July a number of Brothers & Wives met together at the Larmer Tree Gardens for a picnic lunch and stroll around the grounds. We were also joined by several Peacocks and two of the males (Peacocks not Catenian Brothers) put on spectacular, but noisy, displays for us.

The sun shone down on the Salisbury Catholic Churches Parish BBQ held on Sunday 17th July at St Osmunds Junior School. The event was an opportunity for Parishioners from all three Salisbury Catholic churches to get together in a relaxed family environment. Salisbury Catenians were able to subsidise the event and provided manpower on the day.

It was Karen Say's 70th Birthday earlier in July and so Frances Rolleston organised a birthday celebration lunch for her on 22nd July at the Rose & Crown, Harnham. Karen was joined by a number of Catenian wives, one Brother and two of her friends. Brother David Morehead kept John Say company whilst Karen enjoyed her celebration.

At our July Circle meeting/Ladies Night, our dinner guest was Salisbury MP John Glen who had been invited to give a talk based on the theme "Reflection in Faith". John is known for his Christian beliefs and Pro-Life stance, and he gave an interesting, thought provoking, and deeply personal talk on the development of his Christian faith since childhood and throughout his working life.

Looking Ahead

Pub Lunch and optional walk Tuesday 9th August, 1015 for the 4 mile walk (Ebble Valley), and 1215 for the Lunch, meet at the Radnor Arms at Nunton for both or either. If you wish to join either or both please advise Graham Brown by 1200 on Friday 5th August.

On Monday 22nd August, there will be a visit to Selsey Bill Lifeboat Station, where Adrian Holloway will present a cheque to the RNLI (one of his charities from his recent Presidency) Full details to follow later.

The September Pub Lunch will be on Tuesday 13th September, David Gillen will provide details nearer the time.
